NEWSLETTER January 2023

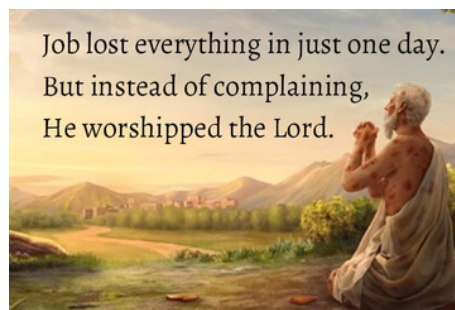

With flattery he will corrupt those who act wickedly toward the covenant, but the people who know their God will be strong and take action. Daniel 11:32 HCSB

Worshipping God for who He is.

By Ingrid Dittmaier

To worship God is to acknowledge the complete and total value of Him. It is showing deep respect, love, loyalty and enthusiasm to Him.

Despite, or perhaps in spite, of how we are feeling at any given time worship positions us to stand in awe of God. We remind ourselves why we find God so amazing and why we gave our lives to Him.

This is a small list of the many names of God in Scripture. These names reflect God's identity as well as His attributes and personality. God already knows who He is, these names are to remind us of who He is and what He does. In worship we are giving respect to all God is without regard to how we are feeling about any given thing or what we need Him to do for us. Even in sickness, God is majestic. Even in poverty, God is a Mighty God. God is truly good all the time, good times and bad. We worship Him because of who He is.
